The International Council for Refugees and Immigrants is an emerging and vibrant organization with unique vision of becoming a model for the national in services delivery and advocacy. ICRI work is rooted in advocacy, comprehensive case management, collaboration with research institutions, and youth programming.

Due to the current pandemic, ICRI is helping those affected in 2020 by Covid-19. ICRI staff reaches out to the community to ensure refugees and immigrants families fortunate are connected to resources to help them survive and thrive in this difficult time.

And to further ensure this, ICRI is ECSTATIC to announce the launch of its Language Services program. We hire interpreters and translators that work in the languages that are most needed for the refugee and immigrant populations. The ICRI Language Services interpreters go through a background check, and receive training on the professional interpreter Standards of Practice and Code of Ethics to make certain that the community is receiving quality services.

For the rest of 2020, we are offering FREE INTERPRETATION SERVICES to cover the cost of service for you to utilize our services during any appointments related to helping those affected by Covid-19.
